OBJECTIVE

My name is Nicolas Suttles, and I am currently a second year at Georgia Tech. As a junior student credit-wise, I have decided to take advantage of my time in school and to seek job opportunities that will prepare me for the workforce after college ends. I am a rigorous worker devoted to my assignments.

I have had a wide range of jobs over the past couple of years, each ranging with their own specific requirements. A common attribute that all three opportunities provided was the requirement of teamwork, as each job had a multitude of others to problem-solve with.
